

New Albany Deanery Catholic Youth Ministries is seeking a Coordinator of Youth Evangelization

The Coordinator of Youth Evangelization is responsible for facilitating deanery-based ministry and programming for the parish high school and middle school youth, utilizing an evangelistic and mission-oriented approach with sound vision, strategy, and execution aimed at forming missionary disciples. This mission is achieved through a clear understanding of the Church's evangelistic mission and promoting it in the interactions with and development of the parish youth ministries. This position seeks to build up the young church at each deanery parish through collaboration and support with zeal and vision.

Education/Experience: Must be a Catholic in good standing. Bachelor's Degree in Theology, Catechetics, Evangelization or related field required. Minimum of 3 years experience in pastoral ministry. Master's Degree in pastoral ministry/theology is a plus. Must have strong communication skills, mission and vision oriented, and be comfortable networking and building relationships with youth ministers, priests, youth and families.

Full-time position with benefits. Schedule is Mon-Thurs 8-4:30pm & Fri 8-11:30. Must be willing to work occasional weekends/evenings.
